Tactical Shotgun Case

Uncle Mike's® new Tactical Shotgun Case was designed specifically for home defense and tactical shotguns. For defense, tactical or competition, it offers two rapid-ready shotshell pouches for quick deployment when needed. The removable six-pack shell holders can be attached to a belt for fast response to critical situations. Thick closed-cell foam ensures firearm protection, while the ripstop construction provides lasting durability that is easy to clean.

Features & Benefits

- Constructed of durable ripstop material
