New Primos Double Bull Shack Attack Features Lightweight Design and Simple Setup

Flora, Miss. – Primo Hunting, an innovator in hunting calls and products, has introduced a new lightweight and easy-to-assemble Double Bull blind. The Shack Attack features a two-hub system, spacious rear entry door and a large shooting window.

Backed by the renowned Primos Double Bull limited lifetime warranty, the Shack Attack can comfortably accommodate one or two hunters. With a generous 75" height and 85" width, the blind is a great option for both archery and firearms hunters. Built with a lightweight two-hub system, the blind is quick to setup and easy to carry into the field, thanks to a total weight of just 22 pounds.

Masked by a retractable mesh, the large shooting window offers hunters great periphery vision and an ultra-wide shooting lane. The wide rear entry allows hunters to enter quietly, while also making it a great hunting blind for disabled hunters.

Trimmed in Ground Swat camouflage by Primos, The Double Bull Shack Attack is a versatile blind for any season afield.

Available in June 2014, the Double Bull Shack Attack ground blind has a minimum advertised price (MAP) of $249.99.

For more than 35 years, hunters have counted on Primos Hunting products and accessories.
