American Eagle Buckets

The range is calling. Answer it with new American Eagle® Buckets. These convenient bulk packs hold 200 or 300 rounds of 223 Rem. FMJ ammunition within rugged plastic containers that stack, carry and store easily. The loads bring the accuracy and performance needed for a long day at the range with accurate bullets, reloadable brass cases and dependable primers. If there's any leftover ammo, it can be stored securely until next time, thanks to the buckets' resealable lid.
